From the East

Dear Brethren and Friends:

First things first...

The June Stated meeting will not be on the first Thursday; it will be on the second Thursday, June 12th. (See page 2.) I hope to see as many of you as possible. At the meeting we expect to have our newest Master Mason, Brandon George give this Third Degree proficiency. We look forward to him someday being another excellent ritualist from Lodi Lodge.

Secondly, we will have a First Degree for Mr. Tony Campanario on Thursday, June 26 at 7:00PM.

Everyone will be in their regular Chairs for the ceremony, with me trying to not forget very much of the ritual.

Third, as you know the process for a potential Consolidation with Woodbridge Lodge is underway. Per the Grand Lodge requirements, a Consolidation Committee has been appointed and will be working with its counterpart from Woodbridge. Fingers crossed for a good result for everyone. We'll keep you posted.

Fourth, we have had a few problems with the homeless who gather in and about our building.

Besides one of them ripping up our American flag, our building manager was recently accosted by someone wielding a machete! So be careful and report any suspicious or threatening behavior. We are exploring how best to address the situation. And on that less than happy note, best to everyone and hope to see you in Lodge.

Fraternally,
John Herrick, PM

Traveling Brother's Adventures

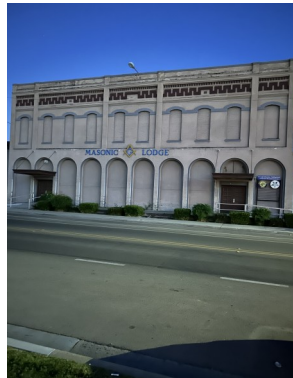

Hesperian Lodge #262 in Santa Maria

About 30 miles from the Chumash casino which is very near Solvang. Met with them on Monday, May 5th and then returned to Tachi casino to visit Tulare on Tuesday.

Olive Branch #269 in Tulare

Warmly received by these Brothers and enjoyed helping as Chaplain. Wor Steve Presant quickly adapted to the untimely surprise of no power upstairs in the lodge room by setting up lodge in the Lounge for his Stated Meeting. This had to be the most intimate lodge room I've ever been in and it was done perfectly.
